

Lovely, Positive Comments – THANK YOU!

- Excellent ethos, always welcoming and ready to listen. My child feels valued and treated as an individual. Staff know my child and care for her, teach her and interact with her in ways to maximize her learning and enjoyment at school. Thank you – what a great team.
- Strong sense of family and safety. Nurturing environment and friendly staff.
- The ethos is so warm and welcoming. Our daughter loves coming to school. It feels calm and supportive.
- School is incredibly welcoming – all staff make the effort to know parents and children.
- Both children are really happy at school and as parents we are proud of their progress. The children have a good grasp of class friends and friends in other years. A lovely community feel to the school. Everything so far is positive and all the staff are really approachable which is wonderful.
- Friendship. Community. It's a wholesome school in which children can achieve.
- Caring, supportive environment. Our daughter enjoys school and readily talks about what she is learning. She talks affectionately about her friends and teachers.
- The school is a very warm and welcoming environment where everyone is valued and nurtured. My child thoroughly enjoys coming to school and it is lovely to see staff and helpers work so hard to ensure the children have wonderful learning experiences.
- Supportive, caring, forward thinking, puts children's best interests first.
- The school promotes a great sense of belonging to both parents and children.
- There is a lovely feel about the school
- Very helpful and go above and beyond to help my son and our family as well. Very supportive and all staff very caring and willing to help with any situation. Couldn't ask for a better school.
- Fantastic staff who are really friendly. A real sense of Christian family values. Super facilities and I would have no issues recommending this school to anyone.
- Inclusive.
- Children are happy and enjoy their time in school.
- Fantastic leadership – so approachable.
- Excellent communication, starting from the Head filtering down to the staff.
- Staff are great, children are happy.
- Very supportive and understanding. This is a brilliant school with the most lovely staff who have been there for both my children.
- Pleasant office staff – always happy to help.
- Always there to help and support not only children but parents too.
- Everyone is so friendly and approachable.
- Headteacher always makes himself available to parents/carers every day.
- Support staff always knowledgeable on children.

- High quality curriculum teaching combined with excellent moral values and education have been apparent throughout my boys' time at the school so far. I am happy that both of them consistently receive the best education in Euxton.
- Fantastic SLT with genuine concern for the children and communication.
- Goes above and beyond to help, always willing to listen.
- Someone is always on hand to help. A staff member is always accessible.
- Fantastic support for children with SEN.
- The class teacher has got to know my child for who he is and his strengths and weaknesses, feeding his passions in life while keeping him focused and grounded.
- Open, honest, approachable high quality staff.
- The headship of the school guides and strives for success and results are both morally and academically.
- Great teaching methods.
- Providing a good range of enhanced curriculum activities, such as wellbeing, sports, Ninja Warrior day.
- Our daughter loves the school. Many activities for the kids. We feel safe and secure in the knowledge she is safe.
- PTFA events involve parents and children.
- Celebration/awards assembly that parents can attend.
- Achievement awards and praise. Good behaviour management in place.
- Great learning, caring and safe school. Our son loves coming to school and enjoys the praise he gets.
- Our child is very happy at school. She wakes up each morning excited to go to school. This is the most important aspect for us. She is enjoying learning.
- Friendly, supportive, give appropriate levels of work. The children make excellent progress.
- Teachers really care about the children and they are taught well. Think it is a brilliant school.
- Unity, friendship, great teaching and effective dealing of problems. Lots of sports offered.
- We feel that the support given to our son who struggles is excellent. We are more than happy how the school is run. We are proud he attends Euxton CE.
- Great range of extra-curricular activities/clubs.
- Offers many diverse opportunities.
- They have a lot of good extra-curricular activities to do and fun things to do in their lessons.
- Engaging and innovative lessons.
- Parent inclusion - via awards assemblies, etc.
- Intervention groups on place when needed.
